

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The Eatonville Chamber promotes individual success, small business development, and entrepreneurial activities by providing information and education, umbrella services, and leadership to local businesses and members. We actively participates in the projects and activities of other agencies and organizations to communicate and further Chamber objectives. The Eatonville Chamber of Commerce includes a diverse group of members from the town of Eatonville as well as outlying communities.

We would like to have you as part of this organization, helping us make a difference in our community.

To become a member, please complete this form and return it with your first years dues.

The undersigned hereby makes application for membership in the Greater Eatonville Chamber of Commerce. Upon acceptance of this application it is signified that the applicant will abide by the By-laws, rules and regulations of this organization.
